THE NEW ERA OUTWEIGHS

When the Baltimore man who goes on chorograph speaks as much as the Ohio man who goes on all day.

The Pullman Company's excess of revenue for the past year is more than $4,000,000. It ought to be—pull every man they can.

If you are a Democrat, and have the interest of your party at heart you will get out and battle for Howell and Campbell on Nov. 7.

The silver question will be thankful when the Senate is over the silver question, so to speak, and turn his attention to the other. The silver question is a long one.

The silver question has at last come to its end. The silver question has at last come to its end. The silver question has at last come to its end.

For Senator—
W. R. HOWELL.
For Representative—
ALEX. CAMPBELL.
For County Superintendent—
S. L. FROGGE.

It's right to stop the silver bullion purchase at all. It's right to stop it now. What's right should be done at once; what's right should not be done at all.

The conduct of young Fair, the son of the bonanza King and ex-United States Senator, who married a courtesan in San Francisco a few days ago, shows that money is a curse to a man without brains.

Justice Field began his thirty-first year on the United States Supreme Court bench with the present term. This record has been surpassed only once in the history of the country, and has been equaled only four times.

Cables announce that the political situation in Nicaragua is critical just now. This announcement as to all Spanish-American countries might be kept standing in all the papers twelve months every year and be true all the time.

To hear Senator Peffer talk about courage, one would hardly take him to be a man who would stand up and face himself to be slapped in the face without resenting the insult, yet that is exactly what Senator Peffer did at Clarksville, Tenn., a good many years ago.

The seven members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who made the rounds of Chicago's "titled palaces of sin," were arrested, they say, they must have run up against a dynamo somewhere in their regard, as nothing short of electricity, and a powerful current of it at that, would shock a Chicago woman.

Treasurer Hale, acting for the State, has purchased of the Massey & Ford Company the shop plant in the Frankfort penitentiary to be used as a chair factory. The transfer to the State will be made at once, and in a short time a large number of convicts will be put to work and thus lessen in some measure the expense to which the State has recently been for their keeping.

It is a right for gods and men to see McKinley and Foster on the stump talking finance. McKinley only a short time ago demonstrated to the country by his failure in business that he is incompetent to handle money matters, and Foster showed by his failure that he was too big a secondhand to be trusted in financial affairs. A pretty pair of financiers these be.

The public has for some time thought that Oscar Wilde was an ass, but it seems from doctrine he is admitting that he is a lunatic. He has constituted himself the apostle of a gospel of filth. As the New York Herald puts it: "It is impossible to assert that a soul should make the acquaintance of sinful pleasures in order to reach a high spiritual level; that lust and even crime are a God-ordained gymnasium in which the deeper hearted man may become robust and morally muscular; that the deeper one has sunk in vice the more he would appreciate virtue; that it is a high and solemn duty to explore the hell of a depraved life in order to get a true estimate of the value of heaven."

Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, in his recent address on journalism at the Union College paid the following tribute to the Bible from the standpoint of his own profession: "There are some books that are indispensable to the kind of education that we are contemplating, and to the profession that we are considering, and of all these the most indispensable of them all is the Bible. There is no book from which more valuable lessons can be learned. I am considering it now, not as a religious book, but as a manual utility, of professional preparation and professional use for a journalist. There is perhaps no book whose style is more suggestive and more instructive from which you learn more directly that embrace simplicity which never exaggerates; which recounts the greatest event with solemnity, of course, but without sentimentality or affectation, none which you open with such confidence and lay down with such reverence; there is no book like the Bible. When you get into a controversy, when you are looking for an expression, what is there that comes a dispute like a verse from the Bible? What is it that sets up the right principle for you, that pleads for policy, for a cause, as much as the right passage of holy scripture?"

Judia doesn't intend to be out-done by the United States; she is now on the verge of a panic.

The largest expense of married life is frequently caused by the little ones, remarks the Lowell Courier.

Democrats, you have only to do your duty at the polls on the 7th of November and the enemy is yours.

If Teller, Stewart and Jones would leave their speeches to print, a long-suffering country would thank them.

Having more money than brains, young Mr. Drexel has retired from business to enjoy the pleasures of society.

The Senate should prepare for the next crisis in advance by so changing the rules as to make the majority rule sure.

Democrats, don't stray off into false gods; vote your ticket straight, remembering that what is not Democratic is dangerous.

Wonder if the Baltimore man who goes on chorograph speaks as much as the Ohio man who goes on all day?

The recently enacted suffrage law in Belgium is a strange piece of legislation. It is a "wonderful experiment" the law gives a vote to every male citizen who has reached the age of twenty-five. A married man who pays taxes, or a tax-paying bachelor of thirty-five, is entitled to an extra vote. A third vote is given to a citizen of independent means, possessing a certificate of high education, or who holds or has held a public office of a certain rank. It is believed that every husband will place his extra vote at the disposal of his wife thus indirectly giving her the elective franchise. Under the new constitution the number of votes in Belgium will increase from 150,000 to 1,200,000.

They say that Bill Howell is wiping the earth up with the good Judge Landes.

One trouble about a compromise is that the President does not favor it. He does not like the idea of surrendering to a beaten foe.

For once in his life the German Emperor has done the right thing. He had a flourish laid on the coffin of Marshal MacMahon.

The rumor that Attorney General Olney is to resign and that Hon. W. R. Russell, governor of Massachusetts, to succeed him is almost too good to be true.

If the Senators had been elected by a popular vote it is safe to say that there would have been some action taken on the silver purchase repeal long since. As it is they are elected by Legislatures which in many instances they have purchased and as a consequence they do not feel responsible to anyone.

The premium age of the year is the Pennsylvania G. A. R. man who at the World's Fair wore a Confederate flag that had been placed as a relic over a locomotive in destroying Confederate bridges and railroads. As nobody paid much attention to the relic, however, the fellow is now busy advertising it himself, in order to raise his standing in the Grand Army of the Republic.

Chief Justice Bennett a few days ago delivered an opinion in the Kentucky Court of Appeals, reversing the decision of the lower court in the case of the Commonwealth vs. G. W. Murphy, indicted for giving away liquor on election day at night, and the Circuit Judge ordered his acquittal. Judge Bennett holds that the law is unconstitutional. Liquor must not be sold, loaned or given away on election day; day being construed to mean the whole twenty-four hours.

If by your failure to vote, Howell and Campbell should be defeated you will regret it when the Legislature begins to make laws under which you must live, but in the framing of which you will have no voice because your county is practically unrepresented—Republican representation being no representation at all. That famous "No Taxation Without Representation" has been without claws could not have been more helpless than Judge Landes and Morgan would be in Kentucky's Democratic Legislature. If you want anything done send Democrats, and it will be done; otherwise, send Republicans.

Government control of railroads does not pay or else Tennessee and Georgia would operate the lines in which they are interested. Tennessee owns a considerable portion of the line operated by the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad Company, which has postponed the declaration of its November dividend until February next, is State property. The Western and Atlantic road from Chattanooga to Atlanta was built by the State of Georgia about 50 years ago and is still owned by the State, although now operated by the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Company. The lease, which still has 25 years to run, adds $420,000 a year to the State's income.

One curious effect of the hard times has been to diminish the revenues of the post office department so much that a deficit of from $8,000,000 is looked for. The usual amount that Uncle Sam's post office department is measuring up to is $4,000,000. Hundreds of houses have failed or gone out of business, and that stopped thousands of letters. It is not only the business of the post office, but the business of the country, that has been left of their letter writing sufficiently to cause a drop of millions in the post office revenues. This, however, has happened in the case of private individuals; the post office, by subscribing to newspapers and magazines by the thousand, so that the decrease in the earnings of second class postal matter is very marked.

Senator Hill was quick to see and grasp the chance for a reform movement in the Senate which would accord with popular sentiment and the logic of the situation. He fully realized his opportunities and like the shrewd politician he is he intends to make the most out of them. In his speech he outlined the Senatorial reform platform: "For one, I am in favor of heroic action, and advocate a resolute effort to establish forever the sacred principle that a majority must be permitted to rule in the United States Senate, as well as in every other legislative body in the country. No matter what the outcome of the present struggle, the necessity of a change in the Senate rules has been abundantly demonstrated. I promise you that the efforts of a certain rank in the Senate, irrespective of the fate of the present bill."

As soon as women began to vote, bold claims and stout men in the dress, we knew that they would not be willing to stop there. We had thought that while capping was a line of business in which the stronger sex would say men, but the competition, but also we were mistaken, for the remarkable report comes from Ocala, Neb., that the Woman's Christian Temperance Association organized itself into a White Cap society for the purpose of chastising several resident young women whose reputations are not good. On the night of the first last, the White Caps entrapped their victims by decaying them out of their houses and, according to the best information, one of the victims was killed while in sensibility, while the other escaped with their clothing torn from their persons and somewhat bruised.

The American Protective Association is an enemy to society, and to our principles of government. Its only motive is to gain political power by working on the prejudices of the people, as is shown by the fact that it requires its members to take upon themselves an obligation to vote against every candidate for office who is a communicant of the Roman Catholic church, under the pretense that the institutions of this country are in danger from the growth of that Church and that organization of Protestants is necessary to stay the progress of Catholicism. The mind that originated the idea of forming the American Protective Association is as narrow as the spirit that prompted it. It is simply the old Know Nothing party under another name. It is the work of demagogues who hope to ride to office by stirring up one branch of the followers of the meek and lowly Nazareth against another. In the end it will fail, as all such movements have failed in the past. It is gratifying to observe that the Protestant clergy are taking positive action in repudiation of this society. The Protestant ministers association of Columbus, O., where the organization is thought to be very strong, have unanimously passed a resolution condemning the organization as an enemy to Christian religion, society and the Christian religion. The Rev. Alexander Milne, one of the signers of the resolution, clearly and vigorously expressed the views of the signers in a sermon preached against the A. P. A.

UNFORTUNATE. The Accident Which Occurred at Clarksville Yesterday Afternoon.

On Account of the Premature Discharge of a Cannon, John Webster Will go Through Life Without His Right Hand.

A damper was thrown over the large crowd at Greenwood cemetery at Clarksville yesterday afternoon by the premature discharge of a cannon by which John Webster, of Battery A, Washington Light Artillery, of Clarksville, was badly hurt.

The force of the explosion, which was fired to salute the arrival of the regiment, was so great that the cannon was being charged for the second time, and was ramming No. 1 in this work, and was ramming the cannon. The rammer on the end of the ram was fired, and possibly contained a spark of fire. He had rammed the powder down, and was standing to one side with his hand on the rammer. There was an explosion and Webster's right hand was completely blown off between the wrist and elbow. It was picked up by a companion and wrapped in a handkerchief. The ram went several hundred yards from the cannon by the force of the explosion. Physicians, who were on the spot, gave assistance and the wounded man was soon put into a hack and carried to the city military hospital. Everything possible is being done for him.

W. C. Bell, of the same company, was acting No. 2, and was standing near the cannon when the explosion came, and was not injured by the explosion. He was also standing at the butt of the cannon. He was badly burned on the face and head, his eye being almost blown out. Had the cannon come a few seconds sooner Webster would have been instantly killed.

When Baby was new, we gave her Cuticura. When she was a child, she used Cuticura. When she became a woman, she used Cuticura. When she had children, she gave them Cuticura.

James Andrew Demaree Is Dead.

Special to the New Era. Louisville, Ky., Oct. 24.—A useful and honorable life was ended this morning when the hand of death laid claim to James Andrew Demaree, the founder of the order of Knights of Honor.

His death, which was unexpected, occurred at his home in this city at 6 o'clock this morning after having been ill only three hours, was due to a hemorrhage of the stomach. He passed away surrounded by his wife and
